2018 Complimentary and Extended Pre-Cruise Packages

GUILFORD, CT – October 11, 2017—American Cruise Lines announces special 2018 Complimentary and Extended Pre-Cruise Packages on many of its most popular itineraries. All Complimentary Pre-Cruise Packages include a premium hotel stay, welcome reception, and complimentary transport to the ship. Complimentary Pre-Cruise Packages are available on the following 2018 itineraries:

- All cruises in the Mississippi River region departing from New Orleans, St. Louis, St. Paul, Pittsburg, Nashville and Memphis.
- All Columbia and Snake River cruises departing from Portland or Clarkston.
- All cruises in Alaska departing from Juneau. The complimentary package also includes a guided Juneau city tour and visit to Mendenhall Glacier.

In 2018, American Cruise Lines will also offer many exciting Extended Pre-Cruise Land Packages. Guests departing from Memphis, can enjoy a Graceland package with a 2-night stay at the Guesthouse Hotel, 2 VIP tickets to Graceland and a Memphis city tour with transfer to the ship. Guests traveling on Columbia and Snake River itineraries, departing from Clarkston, can take an exhilarating Jet Boat tour of Hells Canyon before transferring to the ship. There are also Extended Pre-Cruise packages available on itineraries departing from Seattle, Boston and Providence.

With over 35 itineraries visiting 30 states, American Cruise Lines offers the most comprehensive and extensive travel options on U.S. waterways. In addition to the fabulous Pre-Cruise & Extended-Cruise Packages, most cruises regularly include complimentary guided tours at each port, onboard experts, historians, and nightly entertainment. American Cruise Lines provides both award-winning enrichment and the broadest selection of fascinating all-American travel itineraries.
