American Cruise Lines Names 2nd New Riverboat American Harmony
Watch a 49 Second Sneak Peek inside the Class of Modern Riverboats

Guilford, CT— March 12, 2018—American Cruise Lines is pleased to announce American Harmony, the 2nd ship in its revolutionary Modern Riverboat Series. The Line began construction on American Harmony earlier this year, a sister-ship to the state-of-the-art American Song. A special sneak peek video tour of the ship’s interior and this remarkable series is available at https://vimeo.com/258981154

American Song, the 1st ship in the series, makes its inaugural cruise October 6th, 2018 on the Mississippi River. Just last week, one of the Line’s most beautiful paddlewheelers, America, kicked-off the 2018 Mississippi River season, departing from New Orleans. By October of this year, American Cruise Lines will have 3 newly-built ships plying the Mississippi: 2 authentic paddlewheelers and the first Modern Riverboat in U.S. history.

When it debuts in 2019, American Harmony, will take over on the Mississippi for its sister-ship American Song which will reposition to the Columbia & Snake Rivers for 2019. With the largest fleet in the Country, three distinct ship styles, and two Modern Riverboats cruising along America’s two most popular rivers, American Cruise Lines is well positioned as the undisputed leader in U.S. cruising.
